

ארץ-ישראל, מחקרים בידיעת הארץ ועתיקותיה

Eretz-Israel. Archaeological, Historical and Geographical Studies

Eretz-Israel is a peer-reviewed bi-annual journal with articles in Hebrew and English published by The Israel Exploration Society. Each volume of the series is dedicated to a living or deceased key figure in research, with articles focusing upon the honoree's main areas of interest.

- The article should be not more than 4,000 words, including bibliography.
- Articles should be submitted to: israelexplorationsociety@gmail.com.
- The articles should be sent as Word files in Times Roman font, 12 point, with 1.5 line spacing.
- Illustrations should be sent as separate files (in TIFF or JPEG format), in quality suitable for publication (these files may be sent via WeTransfer or a similar platform).
- All illustrations (photos, drawings, plans, reconstructions), should be called Figures (Fig.). Each of these should be assigned a unique number (Fig. 1, Fig. 2, Fig. 3, etc.) according to the order of their appearance in the article. The preferred location of each figure in the text should be indicated. A list of the figure captions should be included at the end of the article.
- Permission for publication should be submitted for all illustrations that do not belong to the author.
- An abstract of approximately 100 words should accompany each article, as well as six keywords.
- The academic status (Prof., Dr., M.A, B.A., emeritus, independent researcher, etc.), school and department should be indicated for each author.

Style

- Ranges of numbers should be given in full (e.g., 672–689).
- CE/BCE should be used rather than AD/BC. Centuries and millennia should be spelled out (e.g., first century CE, second millennium BCE).

- References should consist of the author's last name, year of publication and relevant sections, page numbers, lines, etc. (Stern 1982: 38–39).
- If the source is co-authored by more than three collaborators, the references should include the first author's name, followed by et al.
- The full-page reference should be given, and not f. or ff. For example: (Goren et al. 2005: 21–34); (Yardeni 1999: 70, n. 14).

Reference list

- The list should be ordered in alphabetical order by last name.
- In the case of multiple authors, all names should appear.
- Multiple entries for the same author should be listed from most recent to the oldest.

The format of the references should be according to the following examples:
